

Join us for South Dakota's 8th annual

Blue Bell Ranch Tour

2017 Leopold Conservation Award Winners

Tuesday, August 1, 2017

**Note, all times are Central Daylight Time*

9:30 am	Registration—Coffee & Rolls
10:00 am	Welcome & Hamann Presentation—Sand County Foundation
10:30 am	Presentation “The Blue Bell Ranch in the Prairie Coteau”—Pete Bauman
11:15 am	Rainfall Simulator—Stan Boltz
12:00 am	Complimentary Lunch—Beef Sandwiches
1:00 pm	Ranch Tour
4:00 pm	SDSU Ice Cream

**Please RSVP by July 24 to Judge Jessop
(605) 280-0127 or judge.jessop@sdconservation.net

- ⇒ Rain or shine
- ⇒ Outdoor attire is recommended, including water resistant footwear, jacket, and umbrella if raining.
- ⇒ Directions: From Clear Lake, go 5 miles east on Hwy 22, turn south at Blue Bell Ranch sign on 480th Ave and proceed 1/2 mile to headquarters.

The Leopold Conservation Award

The Leopold Conservation Award in South Dakota is made possible through the generous support of: USDA—Natural Resources Conservation Service; SD Department of Agriculture; SD Game, Fish, & Parks; SDSU College of Agriculture and Biological Sciences; South Dakota Farm Bureau; First Dakota National Bank; SD DENR Discovery Center; World Wildlife Fund—Northern Great Plains; Belle Fourche River Watershed Partnership; South Dakota Grassland Coalition; Daybreak Ranch; Ducks Unlimited; Millborn Seeds; Professional Alliance; South Dakota's Conservation Districts; The Nature Conservancy; US Fish & Wildlife Service—Partners for Fish and Wildlife; SD Pheasants Forever; Bad River Ranches; Mortenson Family; Truax Company, Inc.; The Mosaic Company; Dupont Pioneer; and the South Dakota Cattlemen's Association.