

Young Cattlemen's Conference Application

Applicant must be a current member of SDCA & NCBA.

The Young Cattlemen's Conference is a comprehensive, nationwide tour of various industry sectors designed to enhance leadership skills in young cattle producers and provide a better understanding of our industry ranging from industry structure to issues management, and from production research to marketing.

The South Dakota Cattlemen's Association's Leadership Recruitment Committee will select one person to represent the organization at the 2020 conference. The individual selected will be responsible for their own one-way plane tickets to Denver, CO and home from Washington, DC. They are also asked to provide an item for the PAC auction fundraiser held during the conference.

Other eligibility requirements:

1. SDCA Membership.
2. NCBA Membership.
3. Must be between 25-50 years old.

Application deadline: April 1, 2020

A. Applicant's Contact Information:

Name _____ Cell Phone _____

Farm/Ranch Name _____ Home Phone _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Email _____

B. Farm/Ranch Information: Please give a brief description of your current operation (i.e. cow-calf, feeder, backgrounder, or other). Please include any other relevant information.

C. Other Information: Please briefly explain any other information you'd like the committee to consider (i.e. educational background, community involvement, why you'd like to participate in YCC, industry issues you feel are important).